Chapter 1 by Jessica Ampersand

I was always a coward.

That isn't to say I was holed up in a cave when my mate died, no. I was by her side when she drew her final breath. I had that same cold grey stare, like a mere man facing his own inevitable death, as I watched it happen. But, it was a quiet moment, with nothing to fear but the night's cold.

But I did nothing to save my race while I had the chance and now... Now all there is is my story. I am the last of the dragons of this world, the last of my name, and this is what happened in the final years of my life.
